Why Did Jacob Cry?
Jacob kissed Rachel and lifted up his voice and wept.—Scripture.
It is our opinion Jacob wept because he hadn't kissed Rachel before, and regretted the time he had lost. But if Rachel was a pretty girl and kept her face clean we can't see that Jacob had much to cry about, anyhow.

A Chicago man visiting Cincinnati was being shown around by a citizen, who said: "Now, let's go and see the Widows' Home." The Chicago man put his finger to the side of his nose and winked and then said: "Not much, Mary Ann; I saw a widow home once, and she sued me for breach of promise and proved it on me, and it cost me sixteen thousand dollars. No, sir; send the widows home in a hack."

In this world joy is measured by the cup; trouble by the peck.

Baseball is as old as the world, as is proven by the first line in Genesis: "In the big inning," etc.

"Isn't it a cute little thing?" said Mrs. Gushly to her husband as she held the baby up to him.

"Yes, it is, and doesn't it look like me? It's not some of my ways already. I'll wager that it'll grow up to be just like me. By the way, we haven't named it yet. What would you suggest?"

"Well, if you're anything of a prophet, I'd take chances right now on naming it Ananias."

"Did you ever see the pig wash?"

"No, but I have seen the pig-iron."

A young man wants to know what's the best thing to be done when a person sits down on a custard pie at a picnic. We would advise him to sit still until the rest have gone home.

"She did wrong to look back, didn't she, Bessie?"

"Yes, mamma!"

"And what do you think Lot did when his poor wife turned into a pillar of salt?"

"I don't know, mamma; I spect he wondered where he could get a fresh one."

A Prayer

God of peace! whose spirit fills All the echoes of our halls,

All the murmur of our rills,

Now the storm is o'er,

O, let freedom be our song,

And let future Washingtons

Rise, to lead their valiant ones

Till there's war no more!

—John Pierpont.

Naturally

We love to hear the printing press—

There's music in its roar—

And when it's printing things we wrote

We love it all the more.

—Tom W. Jackson.

Teacher: "What is the highest form of animal life?"

School boy: "The giraffe."

Bacon: "And does your son show any signs of his college training?"

Egbert: "Oh, yes; he's quite lame from an injury he received on the football team."

A young cadet was complaining of the tight fit of his uniform.

"Why, father," he declared, "the collar presses my Adam's apple so hard I can taste cider."

Where He Got It

He was a witness in a case in the police court.

"What is your name?" inquired Prosecutor Robinson.

"Mah name?" from the darky incredulously.

"I'm talking to you," snapped the prosecutor.

"Well, sah, mah name is Hallowed Hopkins," answered the negro.

"Hallowed—Hallowed!" gasped the judge.

"Where did you get that name?"

"Frum mah maw," answered the negro. "It am from de Scriptures."

"From the Scriptures? What part of the Scriptures?"

"Doan' you all r'membah, judge, wheah it says, 'Hallowed be thy name?'"

The judge recalled the passage.—Louisville Times.

"The ancients treated diseases with charms and trinkets."

"Why not?"

"Can there be any medical virtue in such?"

"I've known a new bracelet to get my wife quickly over what appeared to be a very sick spell."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

TOXICATION IS SELF POISONING

Few Realize Causes of This Form of Ailment

Few realize what a great number of people, among those who live in such cities as this, suffer from auto-intoxication. This condition, which has caused so much discussion, is nothing more nor less than a slow self-poisoning of vital organs. It is the very foundation of many ailments.

When the organs become weakened from any cause they are unable to throw off the accumulations of waste matters. The putrefactive germs soon begin to get in their deadly work and the sufferer finally is a direct victim of poisons generated right in his own system.

Among the common results of this auto-intoxication are jaundice, hard cold, constipation, indigestion and fermenting of food, biliousness, sick headaches, backaches, dizziness, disfigurement, pains in the kidney region and nervousness.

Tanlac is designated especially to combat this condition of congestion brought about by auto-intoxication. Its properties as a tonic and invigorant tend to throw off the poisons and to spur the organs back to needed efforts—in short, to clean them and make them normal again.

To an automobilist it might be said that Tanlac acts as a spark plug in the human mechanism. It starts the vital engines and then keeps them going at properly regulated speed.

Tanlac is now obtainable in Alliance at the Thiele drug store, where it is being daily explained during the constantly increasing demand.

ATTENTION, DRUGGISTS

No section of Nebraska has such a great out-of-doors as western Nebraska, and this is the section which the editors of the state expect to visit by special train during the early part of August. Few people in eastern Nebraska know what the western part of the state looks like, and it will certainly be well described to them by the editors who will make the trip. The Nebraska Press Association, conducting the excursion, extends every newspaper man and woman in Nebraska, a cordial invitation to join the big party.

Constipation and Indigestion

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Wilmington, N. C. Chamberlain's Tablets are mild and gentle in their action. Give them a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the agreeable laxative effect which they produce. Obtainable everywhere.

Herald Want Ads Pay

That Herald want ads are a paying proposition was shown last Thursday when two replies by long distance telephone were received by an Alliance man who had advertised for a position on a ranch. One phone call came from a Maryland ranchman, and another one from a Lakeside man. Another Alliance man who had advertised a house for sale or trade had fifteen calls in two days in answer to the want ad. If you have something to dispose of or want to buy something, try a Herald want ad next time.—Phone 340.

LIVED IN MISERY. "I suffered greatly from nervousness and headaches. The least excitement gave me dreadful pain. I began using Dr. Miles' Nervine and a few days later started to take Dr. Miles' Heart Treatment. I soon got so much better that I was encouraged and continued taking the two remedies until I was so well that work was no bother to me at all."
